Words from Vestry

The following is part of one of the daily devotions that Sarah Young has written in "Jesus Calling":

"Remember that I can fit everything into a pattern for good. Including the things you wish were different." "Your main responsibility is to remain attentive to me, letting me guide you through the many choices along your pathway."

Consider St. Paul's Church. We could no longer afford to keep our beloved building. With sadness we decided to sell and so began our journey, along our pathway. In short order, our church was sold to another church, we found a new home at UMC, we packed our belongings, and moved in. All of this happened very quickly and through a pandemic as well. But the speed of our journey has now slowed.

There are many outreach choices along our pathway, but so far we have not found a choice that has “moved” us. The vestry needs input from everyone. What type of outreach “speaks” to you? What outreach projects would you participate in?

God will give us the “spark” to set our outreach fire blazing. We just have to be patient.

Judy Robel

Jim Persons Memorial Service

A memorial service will be held for Jim Persons on Saturday, August 7th, at 2:00 pm. The service will be held in the chapel of Windridge Memorial Park in Cary. Jim and his wife Marty were long time members of St. Paul's serving as wardens for several terms. Jim will always be remembered with fondness and gratitude.
