From Deacon Deb

"I am the bread of Life"

This Sunday we will hear one of the great "I am" words of Jesus. Jesus tells his followers (and us) who he is. It is for us to note the words Jesus uses to describe himself. He does not say I am your King nor does he say I am your ruler and Lord. No, instead he uses the familiar and comfortable description of bread.

Who does not love bread? The smell, texture, and taste is always a comfort. Bread feeds us body and soul. It is essential to our life and well-being. This is what Jesus is telling us. He is essential to our life and well-being. Jesus gives himself freely. He is ours for the taking; he feeds and comforts us in all ways. No matter what we may hunger for, it is in Jesus alone that we will be satisfied.

In Christ,
Deacon Deborah
